ROUTE 53 IMPLEMENTING HEALTH CHECK ON NGINX

1) Go to route 53 console
2) Click on health check and select create health check
3) Give Name name select endpoint you want to monitor
4) Specify the ip address or domain that need to be monitored
5) Mention the protocol http or https and in path mention the whole path that you want to monitor, if you want to monitor root then write / in path
6) In advanced config select request interval as 30 sec
7) In health check region choose recommended
8) Click on Next
9) Now create an alarm for that and choose your topic, if not created than create a new topic
10) Click create health check